DESCRIPTION

1972 Custom 77m Rinaldo Gastaldi M/Y LADY SARYA , legendary 76m yacht, built in 1972 by Rinaldo Gastaldi in Nuovi Cantieri Apuania in Marina di Carrara, Italy, especially for New York property developer William Levitt. The yacht is characterized by the unmistakable twin funnels with a large swimming pool positioned between them on the upper deck. She has a gross tonnage of 1,031, a steel hull with an aluminum superstructure and teak decks. Lady Sarya can accommodate 11 guests in 6 cabins with en-suite bathrooms and up to 36 crew. Refurbished in 2020, the yacht is the ultimate combination of vintage ambience and classic luxury. Her vintage interior design remains distinctive with outstanding details and spacious guest areas. The ambience, the rich antiques and the exclusive artisan woodwork can be seen in the famous movie "The Greek Tycoon" (1978), based on Onassis' life with Anthony Quinn. The deluxe and spacious Master Suite is located at the Main Deck and occupies 100 sq.m. in total. It offers two bathrooms -His and Hers- and a separate Dressing Room with its own sitting area, all beautifully appointed in neutral colors. - Cabin configuration :

1 Master Suite with double bed

4 Guest Cabins with twin beds that can be converted to double

1 Staff Cabin with single bed - Public areas : 1 Main Salon with Drawing Room and Dining Area

1 Upper Lounge - The Bar

Exterior Pool with depth of 1.45m
